Dear Clerk:

Following up on my mailing to you on December 19, 2006 of a civil Complaint, I realised a couple days late that I had not enclosed sufficient copies of the complaint itself for service on the parties. Enclosed please find four (4) additional copies of the said Complaint. BD scanned

Please note that I am requesting permission to proceed pro personam, in forma pauperis. I am forced to file by mail because I live thousands of miles away from this Court and am summarily unable to present myself before it.

Because regular mail from you may take over a month to arrive at my home, I kindly request that you fax me at the U.S. fax number specified above to inform me of any problems, or when and if my motions are granted or denied.

Thank you, in advance, for your timely attention to this matter.

Sincerely,

Emmanuel Lazaridis
